Sweets For School Lunch

The following suggestion for desirable sweet or simple dessert for children is taken from farmers' Bulletin 712, School Lunches:

Fruit and Nut Confection.

1 pound figs. 1 pound meats 1 pound dried prunes or seedless raisins. Confectioners' Sugar.

Provides twenty-four 2 ounce portions. Wash, pick over, and stem the fruits and put them with the nut meats through a meat chopper, and mix thoroughly. Roll out to a thickness of about one-half inch on a board dredged with confectioners' sugar and cut into small pieces. If this candy is to be kept for some time, the pieces should be separated by means of paraffin paper.

This confection, in addition to being nutritious and well liked by children, has some value in preventing constipation.

GENI CASCARETS[™] FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Sick Headache, Constipation, Bloating, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

How odd how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sluggish bowels—you always get relief with Cascarets. They immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach set and head clear for months of work while you sleep.

Heating Country School

With the winter months coming on an important problem arises in proper heating of country schools. The difficulty is not so much to furnish enough heat as to furnish with warmth an adequate supply of fresh air, says Dr. M. P. Ravenel.

Children are cooped up within fairly tight rooms for five or six hours a day at a period when they are growing and need every advantage for the development of their minds and bodies. One great and common fault in schools is the uneven distribution of heat. The children near the red hot stove are too hot while those a little farther away are too cold.

With heat it is necessary to furnish an abundant supply of fresh air, since in breathing the air becomes rapidly poisoned with our own excretions, and loses its life-giving properties. The advantages of fresh air are readily seen in the so-called open air schools which were devised and put into operation for children suffering from tuberculosis. It was soon found that many of these sick children did better in their studies and showed more advance than healthy children in closed rooms. If an abundance of fresh air is good for sick children and can bring about such results, why should well children be deprived of it, and be obliged to do their work in close, stuffy rooms, breathing vitiated air over and over again.

The average country school is necessarily heated by stoves. The red hot stove which burns coal gives off injurious gases to the room. In such a stove there is little or no provision for carrying out the used and foul air. This can be corrected by any competent sheet iron worker by covering the stove with what is called a "jacket", which is a shield of metal set around the stove. Within the jacket there should be a hole in the floor connecting with a flue on the side of the house through which fresh air is constantly admitted.

It is necessary also to furnish an abundance of moisture. The more we heat air, the greater its capacity for moisture, and although the outside air may be moist enough to be comfortable, when we heat it by means of our stoves it becomes too dry for comfort. This is hard to remedy, but can be helped by having a broad pan of water on the stove constantly evaporating and giving moisture to the room.

Care should be taken not to overheat the school room. If some children are cold, it is better for them to wear their wraps than to overheat all the rest in the school room.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Keytesville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are weak. Weak kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Weak kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, suggest weak kidneys and warn you of the danger of dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease. In that case Doan's Kidney Pills have been endorsed by thousands. Here is a statement of a nearby resident:

J. R. Street, painter, S. Broadway, Salisbury, Mo., says: "I have been troubled off and on by backache and disordered kidneys, brought on I think by the fumes of turpentine. Doan's Kidney Pills have always given me prompt relief and I am glad to recommend them to others who are bothered in that way."

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill.—"While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital."—Mrs. E. SHELDON, 5657 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

If you secure a loan before figuring with me and it cost you more than I could let you have the money for, that is your loss. 31 tf J. W. Wayland.
